Mattapoisett Museum And Carriage House Displays

Lamps To Light Your Way

By Dionne F. Richmond

Next time you flip a switch to turn the light on, imagine this --- running out to the General Store with a galvanized tin kerosene can for a refill whenever you wanted light in your house.

The average Mattapoisett home got most of its light after sundown from the open fire or dim candlelight until the first type of lamp, a "Betty" or "Phoebe" lamp was invented circa 1700s. The "Phoebe" lamp burned oil with a floating wick in a holder and was hung up on the walls, almost like a floating candle with oil instead of wax.

Other lamps on display at the Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House include early lamps, navigational boat lamps, bicycle lamps, whale oil lamps, miner's lamps and railroad lamps, including one from the late 1800s used on the Central Pacific.

Conductors would swing their railroad lamps to signal passengers were "all aboard" and they were ready to travel.

One solution to a fire at night during the late 1800s was a "Torch Boy"-- someone who held out a unique lamp with one end drenched in oil to light the way for a fire engine responding to a night fire.

Ever hear of a "Courting Lamp?" While Ms. Bette Roberts said she knew what a "Courting Candle"was -- a "Courting Lamp" was something she just discovered from the display. It was a miniature lamp, which only held a tiny amount of oil.

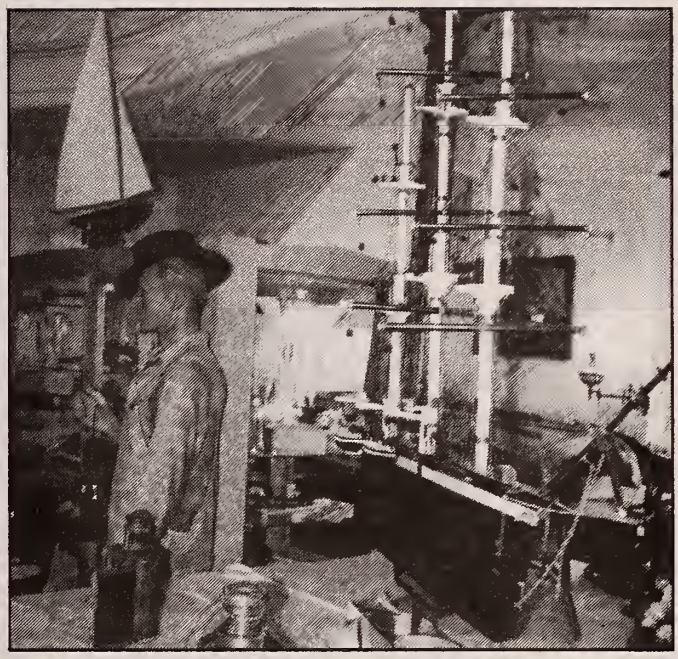
"When the flame went out, it was time for the boyfriend to go home," explained Ms. Roberts.

And before people threw on a pair of ice skates over their boots or shoes, or dressed in their winter gear, they were sure to fill up their "Skater's Lamp," to be able to see their way in front of them on an ice pond.

When ships were on rocky seas, whale oil sat in gimbels, so the oil would not spill and cause a fire. Turn that gimbel around, it could be used as a candle. Another innovative idea was the prism.

Correction

In the July 26, 1996 issue of The Wanderer the artwork donated by The Arthur Moniz Gallery for the Mattapoisett Harbor Days Raffle was misreported as being valued at $2500. and is actually valued at $375.



A unique replica of the "Wanderer" sets the background for the exhibit focusing on lamps and lighting from the Phoebe lamp of the 17th century and 18th century, through the lovely ornamental lamps with all the crystals prevalent at the turn of this century. The Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House closes for the summer on August 31st, so do make a point of visiting!

Light aboard a ship was limited to candles, oils and kerosene lamps. The Deck Prism was a clever solution. It was laid flush to the deck, and drew light to the lower decks.

Also at the museum is what is reputed to be the oldest whale oil lamp in Mattapoisett, owned by the Meigs family. Special wick cutting scissors are also on display, as are the old fashioned wicks. Lovely gold lamps with crystals dangling from them are also a treat to see. Some of the lamps on display were once oil lamps but converted once electricity was invented.

Many of the lamps on display were donated to the museum by Mrs. Mellie Masterson several years ago.

The exhibit will continue through August 31st, so be sure to stop by and learn about the history of lamps and lighting. Museum hours are Tuesday through Saturday, 1:00 pm until 4:30 pm. Admission is $2 for adults and 50 cents for children. The museum is air-conditioned and docents are on hand to guide you or answer questions. Their small gift corner offers such items as the two self-guiding walking tour books of the village, the Society's Cookbook "Tried and True Recipes," The Mattapoisett Doorways Poster, a fine packet of pen or caricatures done. There were also craft booths, hand-made jewelry, books, quilts, pictures.

In the meantime crowds gathered to hear the soft, soothing sounds of the Harpoon Harmonizers from New Bedford. "The sun always shines over the Harpoon Harmonizers" said one of the crooners.

Elizabeth Leidhold of Mattapoisett, director of the museum, said they were trying to raise money for new exhibits. Five years ago a professional director was hired and redefined the purposes in terms of community resource and outreach. Their weekday open hours are mainly for the youth. The museum sponsors educational programs, tours, and hosts school and scout troop field trips. Weekends focus on families who come to explore the museum's collections and participate in the popular Saturday programs which include identifying birds, handling live bees and sampling their honey, and exploring the innovative "soil tunnel." In the summer months hiking, exploring the shorelines, or even viewing the late summer sky from the beach for constellations are all popular.

Many of these items were collected through world-wide travel, mostly by ships from local ports and reflect the character of the region.

New exhibits are being developed, including an orbiting Universe, a "Dig for Fossils" table, a tidal salt water touch tank with indigenous sea life. Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

August 6, 1996

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, August 6 at 7:00 pm by Chairman John N. DeCosta. Also present were Selectman Paul E. Lambalot and Secretary Melody Pacheco.

After approving the minutes of the August 1 and the July 30 meetings of the board, and the July 30 Executive Session minutes, the board unanimously voted to appoint William T. Nicholson and Andrew J. Bobola to the Open Space Study Committee, for a term to expire on August 30, 1997.

The board also agreed to hold signature of a "thank you" letter from Sgt. Paul Magee to the Town of Northfield for their cooperation in the recent "Survival Program" in which ORR Junior High School students participated. The board did not have a copy of said letter in their files.

Under meetings scheduled throughout the week, Chairman DeCosta noted:

• Monday, August 12 at 3:00 pm - Bid Opening for chipping stumps at landfill;

• Monday, August 12 at 7:00 pm - Open Space Study Committee meeting.

week, the board received a copy of notification to abutters of a hearing scheduled before the Conservation Commission (ConCom) that evening at 7:30 pm. The hearing was regarding proposed improvements to the Mattapoisett River Dam and Herring Weir on Route 6. Board members said they would be attending the hearing later that evening.

The board also received a letter from Marilyn Lee and Ellen Driscoll expressing their disappointment with the board's recent decision to rescind their motion establishing a Recreation Commission. "We were disappointed that the Board of Selectmen, who had eagerly appointed us to the newly-established commission, did not inform us of their intention to rescind the motion," the letter stated. "Upon conclusion of the meeting with the Mattapoisett Youth Athletic Association (on July 16), you indicated you would 'get back to us.' We consider it a lack of courtesy not to have been informed of your intentions considering you had appointed us to the commission."

Chairman DeCosta asked Ms. Pacheco if she could draft a letter to Ms. Lee and Ms. Driscoll explaining the reasons for the board's decision.

The board next received letters from Suzann Buckley and Barry Denham, both expressing interest in serving on the Open Space Study Committee. The board unanimously voted to appoint both to said committee. Diane Perry — who chairs the committee and was present at the meeting — said that brings the total to 17 members.

Bruce Rocha of Fisher & Rocha, Inc. next sent a copy of the letter they sent to Building Inspector Andrew J. Bobola thanking him for his assistance with a potentially dangerous problem at 13 Fairhaven Road.

The board received a letter from Richard A. Murray, Director of the Massachusetts Environmental Police, thanking the board for recognizing their services to the Town of Resource Officers and their deputies are empowered to enforce these laws, and Chairman DeCosta advised that first offenders will only be given a written warning. Second offenders will be issued a citation along with a $10 fine.

The board also received a letter from Audrey A. Rebello of Acushnet, commending town employee Paula Butterfield, Veterans' Clerk, for assisting her with a problem in filing paperwork. "I would at this time like to bring recognition to Paula Butterfield for the excellent service she has provided to me and my family," Ms. Rebello wrote.

Under the Executive Secretary's report, Ms. Pacheco noted that Natural Resource Officer Brian Nunes will be out on extended sick leave from August 7 through August 23. As such, Selectman Lambalot moved that Assistant Natural Resource Officer Kathleen Massey be appointed as acting Natural Resource Officer during that period. "This is a three-week period ... and it's a busy season," Selectman Lambalot said. The board unanimously approved the motion.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 7:20 pm.

Shortly after 7:00 pm Selectmen met with Marjorie and Russell Josephson who also submitted a letter requesting an" illegally erected, unsightly, unkept, neglected rotten barrier removed from the property line located behind 17 Wilson Road."

"This barrier made from the side of a barracks building, has been neglected and painted once in over 20 years. It also has carpenter ants in it. Because it is so unsightly and unkept, it has decreased the value of our property by a substantial amount per the realtors evaluations."

Selectmen explained they have no authorization over this matter, but the newly formed Fence Viewers – Ray Pickles and Albert Richards, will address the issue as soon as their appointments are official. Fence Viewers have the authority to regulate Massachusetts State Laws and review issues of proceedings for the neglect of fence by adjoining occupant.

At 7:10 pm the Board met with Police Chief Brian Scott to discuss three new appointments to the department. Chairman Dickerson excused himself from and asked Selectman Schaefer to take over his Chairmanship for the meeting.

Chief Scott then introduced John Stapleton, Kevin Paulson and Michael Smith to the Board. He explained that a couple of part-time police officers have found full-time jobs and their availability has decreased. "We need a regular set of part time people," he explained.

Mr. Stapleton, who has previous experience as a dispatcher is E-911 certified, will work the desk. The other two officers will patrol the roads and be trained in E-911 at a later date. All three men are trained for the job, which will save the town a lot of money. All of the necessary paperwork has been done, and backgound checks have been completed. There is a 90 day probation period for the appointments. Selectman Schaefer asked the three candidates what their ultimate goals were relative to their interest. Mr. Stapleton said he has worked as a public safety dispatcher for 7 years for the fire department, EMS and had some law enforcement training.

The other two candidates had experience working part-time in Wareham and Mattapoisett. The board welcomed the three men to the department and informed them they needed to be sworn in at the Clerk's Office.

At 7:20 pm the Board met with Timothy Adams, who is working on an Eagle Scout project. He has designed gray wooden containers to hold 30 gallon trash containers for his project. There will be 12 of these containers placed throughout the village, Silvershell Beach and throughout the town. So far he has received $100 for the project but needs about $250 more to complete his project. Those interested in donating may mail checks to Troop number 32, in care of Tim Adams, 251 Wareham Road in Marion.

Chairman Dickerson explained the purpose of the trash containers is to make the trash containers more attractive in hopes that more people will use them.

Selectmen then met with Harbormaster George Jennings who informed them of a federal grant as a result of the Clean Vessel Act, to provide money for pump out facilities for the town.

As a result of the act, 22 towns have been provided with pump-out facilities. He told Selectmen the town received $37,170 for a 21 foot boat with a 300 gallon capacity under deck. The only expenses incurred will be servicing the boat and keeping it fueled. "We plan to use the current boat as

HMS WARRANTY

15 VS 30 YEAR MORTGAGE

Among the diverse home financing options, is the 15-year mortgage. It has been very popular depending on the difference in interest rates between the 15 and 30-year mortgages. If the spread is small, there is not that much difference between the two.

Perhaps the most attractive features of the 15-year mortgage are a lower interest rate, more rapid equity buildup and lower total interest payments over the life of the loan. However, the 15-year loan also has some drawbacks.

While homebuyers might save more in interest, their monthly payments would be greater. Also, the 15-year mortgage might not be the best instrument for borrowers who move before their loans reach maturity. Because most people do not live in their homes for the duration of their mortgage loans, it might make sense to examine interest savings over THAT time frame. Since monthly payments are higher, homeowners might want to explore whether the extra money could be invested.

a back up," explained Mr. Jennings. The old boat only had 100 gallons capacity, making it difficult for pumping out larger boats such at the Tabor Boy which holds 450 gallons.

When asked if people were taking advantage of the pump-out boat, Mr. Jennings said there have been 300 pump-outs this year. "More and more boats are having tanks added," he said. "There's no excuse to dump, all we ask is that they call us."

Shellfish Officer Charles Bradley brought the board up to date about the Bird Island Lighthouse. The restoration of the lighthouse will include repointing, and painting the lantern area and installing new glass, and adding light to the lantern with a modern light using solar panels. A $35,000 anticipated grant has been received and the bids for the job will open on September 5th. "We should be able to begin the restoration of Bird Island Lighthouse," said Mr. Bradley. The grant will enable the restoration but money is still needed for fencing, signs, and maintaining the lighthouse over the years. Once the Lighthouse is completed, there will be fireworks donated by John McGrath who does the fireworks July 4th display. A ceremony at Silvershell Beach is also planned with old flares as well.

Selectmen also received the following correspondence for the week:

• A letter from Daniel Schworm who requested to serve on the Marion Recreation Committee. He wrote that the opportunity to contribute to Marion, by serving on the Recreation Committee would be an honor. Selectmen unanimously appointed him to the committee.

• A letter from Sarah J. Madison, complaining about village traffic and illegally parked cars during a the Buzzards Bay Regatta. She also stated her concern for upcoming events in town and said illegally parked cars endanger public safety. Chairman Dickerson said he would submit the letter to the police chief but said he thought the recent event went smoothly.

•A letter from Laura Briggs petitioning for an additional street light near County Road in Marion for safety purposes. "At the beginning of County Road the street lights are located on every third telephone pole until Blackmore Pond Road. After that, they are sporadic and there is another long stretch, which includes our address that is in darkness," she wrote. Selectmen said they will send her a letter suggesting she contact the Wareham Board of Selectmen who has jurisdiction over that area.

•A letter from Horace "Hod" Kenney, Jr. informing the board of a scheduled annual meeting for the Sippican Land Trust on Sunday, August 25th at Ram Island beginning at 3:00 pm. There will be a police detail on Nye's Wharf Water Street area from 2:30 pm until 6:30 pm to provide orderly parking on Water Street and Lewis Street. The meeting invitation will be a town wide mailing. Mr. Kenney asked the Board to park any overflow at Silvershell Beach. They unanimously agreed to the request.

• A letter thanking Mr. Charles Bradley for his compilation of Holmes Brook sampling data. Mr. Geoff LaFond wrote saying the sampling data makes for informative reading and that he appreciated Mr. Pickles taking the time to make them available a thorough accounting of fecal coliform levels at the mouth of Holmes Brook.

"In looking back at my notes from the most recent Holmes Brook informational meeting, conducted by the BBAC, the coliform count most often referred to as jurisdiction for the project at the 2,340 count recorded on 11/29/95. Those of use who attended were left with the impression that comparable counts would result from most rain storms. It is interesting to discover that other samplings involving comparable rain volumes as the 11/29/95 sampling produced fecal coliform counts generally lower by a factor of at least 10."

Mr. LaFond said he was curious to know what would produce such a high count as that recorded in 1995 when earlier in November a rain event of almost half the volume of rain affecting the 11/29/95 sampling resulted in a fecal coliform count of only 210.

After discussing the recent work of the BPW, the board unanimously voted to adjourn for the evenings at 8:00 pm.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

August 5, 1996

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, August 5 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Lorraine Roy Hawkes. Also present were Selectman Richard D. Cutler, Selectman William Chamberlain, and Secretary Veronica Lafreniere.

After unanimously approving the minutes of the July 24 and July 29 meetings of the board, Chairman Hawkes reviewed incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with a letter from Attorney Armand Fernandes Jr. on behalf of Curt Perry regarding property located at 281 Cushman Road. According to Attorney Fernandes, Mr. Perry had obtained a building permit and had demolished the building and garage located on said property. As such, the lawyer understands that the clean-up of the lot is near-completion.

Chairman Hawkes said that she and Selectman Chamberlain had inspected the property on Saturday, August 3, but they wanted to know about some remaining debris where the bulk of the demolished material was taken. "There is evidence of debris mixed with dirt (at the site)," said Selectman Chamberlain. "It also looks like there was an old shed out back. I don't think the project is complete to our satisfaction ... and I would like to see records of where the debris was taken."

The board unanimously voted to request this information before agreeing the clean-up effort is complete.

Dan Doherty of Doherty's Towing in West Wareham next sent a letter to request that his company be added to the town's police tow list, along with a copy of the letter their received from Rochester Police Chief Walter Denham advising that they need to submit their request to the Board of Selectmen.

Chairman Hawkes agreed the board should hold this request until next week's meeting with Kathy O'Brien of the Communications Department regarding the various local agencies now used for police towing.

The board next met with Regional Conservation Agent Laurell J. Farinon regarding Phase 2 of the so-called Mayflower Woods Project. Ms. Farinon admitted she wasn't sure what the board wanted to know, and asked how she could advise them. Selectman Cutler said that the town has expressed some interest in a portion of both Phase 1 and Phase 2 of the development, but he wanted to know if the lots in question included wetlands and if they would have any value other than open space. There was also some discussion of using the property as a possible school site.

"We've had several filings on this project ... and the wetlands were defined and re-evaluated," Ms. Farinon said, referring to a lot plan. "There are several isolated wetland areas (throughout) the easterly portion of the property."

Of the lots which the town seemed interested in, a greater portion of those were either near or closely bordered by wetlands. "The wetlands decrease the value of the lots for Rochester," Selectman Chamberlain said. "I think we need to decide what (the property) will be used for before we make any decisions." The board agreed to hold this matter for further discussion at a later date.

Former Selectman Harry Brown next met with the board regarding the possibility or resurrecting his plan for a Soil Conservation Board. "I wanted to bring up what you did in 1992 (as Selectman) to update the Earth Removal By-Laws and form a Soil Conservation Board," Selectman Chamberlain said. "We wanted to get your input on it ... and see if you'd be interested in tweaking (the proposal) so it can be placed on a Town Meeting warrant."

Mr. Brown agreed that he still had "very strong feelings" about soil conservation in Rochester and he said he would be willing to assist in preparing the measure for Town Meeting. Selectman Chamberlain said the board should appoint a few people to assist in this matter, and after volunteering himself, he advised that anyone else interested in serving on the Earth Removal By-Law Review Committee should contact Town Hall at 763-3871 before their next meeting on Monday, August 12.

The board next opened and awarded solicited bids for renovations at the town Fire Station. Selectmen unanimously voted to award the project to the lowest bidder — Loader and Coleman Industries of New Bedford — for a total of $29,325. The board agreed to contact Fire Chief Scott Ashworth who could not be present for the meeting.

Civil Defense Director Paul Ciaburri met with the board to discuss Red Cross disbursements from the Annie Maxim Trust Fund account. Mr. Ciaburri wanted to know why they had to "fool" with the existing account. But Chairman Hawkes explained that Rockland Trust doesn't want to handle the trust account anymore and, as such, the town needs to change banks.

Mr. Ciaburri was concerned that if the town were faced with an emergency where they needed to set-up a shelter, if the Red Cross is not notified, the town "owns" the shelter. But the board explained that the money in the account — which was willed by Annie Maxim for a variety of town emergency services — would still be disbursed as needed in the same way. They simply need to find another banking institution.

The board next received an urgent notice from Harvey J. Blanchette, District Director of Veterans Services, advising that many residents in the area have been contacted by telephone solicitors identifying themselves as representing the American Veterans Relief Fund. "The callers are asking for money so that their organization can purchase gift baskets for veterans in VA hospitals," Mr. Blanchette wrote. "According to the Commissioner of Veterans Services in Boston and the Veterans Administration in Providence, the organization has done minimal work for the VA hospitals. We are advising residents use caution and proceed at (their) own discretion for any contributions that might be made."

The board agreed to hold this information until next week's meeting with Ms. O'Brien. Selectman Cutler also suggested the board look at evaluating the different towing companies to ensure that they all meet state requirements. Selectman Chamberlain suggested the board send a letter to each advising them that they will be inspecting their lots and equipment in the near future to see if they comply with state specifications.

FLEA ALLERGIES

My dog itches constantly in the summer and fall and loses hair over his back near his tail. A friend said it could be caused by fleas, but I rarely find more than one flea at a time. Any thoughts?

Your friend may be right. Many dogs and cats are allergic to flea saliva. All of the changes in your dog's skin can be caused by 1 flea bite a week. Cats with flea allergy dermatitis tend to get small scabs all over their body. Treatment involves strict flea control in your home as well as on your pet.

proud to announce a free public viewing of the Perseid Meteor Shower and a survey of the summer constellations at Silvershell Beach on Monday, August 12 from 8:00 pm until 10:00 pm.

All interested members of the public are welcome for a viewing of the most spectacular meteor show of the year. With a clear sky there could be 50 to 60 meteors per hour at the shower's peak. There will be no moon to contend with during the early evening, so the summer constellations should be quite clearly seen on a good evening. The planet Jupiter and its moons will be featured through the Museum's portable telescope. The summer constellations will be pointed out. Come with telescopes, binoculars, bug spray, warm clothing, and plenty of questions. If there are any questions, please contact David Pierce at 748-2372.

from 6:00 pm until 8:00 pm in the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery at the Center. It has been almost 15 years since Moniz has exhibited in Marion, and his technique and style have developed into unique, award-winning, internationally recognized images in graphite and watercolor on board.

"I try to convey a feeling of quiet and calm in a world of noise and fast pace," states Moniz. "I like old structures which seem to stand with dignitiy the test of time...my paintings have an Oriental feeling...it's discipline and sense of order, fascinating."

Mr. Moniz attended Massachusetts College of Art and the School of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. He has had major exhibitions in Japan, and his work is in the permanent collections of the Imperial Palace in Tokyo, presentation of Emperor Akihito, the John Manjiro House Museum in Kochi, and the Tosashimizu City Hall. Most recently Moniz's work is represented by Alfred J. Walker Fine Art Gallery in Padanaram and on Newbury Street in Boston.

Whether it be gardens, gates, bark from trees, rocks or the sea, Mr. Moniz finds special compositions in intimate details and brings the viewer in touch with these quiet places. His technique of graphite and watercolor is crisp and colorful in a subtle way. He maintains a studio and gallery in Fairhaven, and will display images of the area in the MAC show. The Arthur Moniz exhibition will run through September 25th.

Project Grow

A recent mailing, based on town census information, was sent to all families with age-eligible children. The mailing contained a brochure and application materials for the Project Grow preschool program. If you did not receive a mailing, have an age-eligible child, and are interested in this program, you may pick up an application at the Office of Superintendent of Schools located at Old Rochester Regional High School, 135 Marion Road in Mattapoisett. Priority will be given to applications received by August 15th, 1996.

Project Grow, the local public school early childhood program, is seeking students for the upcoming school year. Anticipated state grants, combined with local funds, support the operation of the program. Project Grow classrooms are located at the Center School in Mattapoisett, Memorial School in Rochester and the Sippican School in Marion. All classes run for four hours a day, Monday through Thursday, and follow the public school calendar. The program is tuition free. The exhibit will continue through August 31st. Museum hours are Tuesday through Saturday, from 1:00 pm until 4:30 pm.

Sayles' revealing film cuts to the bones of the past

By Rob Gonsalves

• Lone Star. Starring Chris Cooper, Elizabeth Peña, and Kris Kristofferson. Directed by John Sayles. Running time: 134 minutes. MPAA rating: R. At Cinema 140 in New Bedford.

Lone Star begins with a skeleton in the sand. Some people in the Texas border town of Frontera wish it had stayed buried; others, like the decent Sheriff Sam Deeds, wonder what secrets the bones can tell the living. Deeds, a man of intelligence and compassion, recognizes the remains as a metaphor for the skeleton in Frontera's closet — evidence of past racism and violence bleeding into the present. It may also be a skeleton in his father's closet.

Leave it to John Sayles to elevate this mystery to an essay on the larger American mysteries. Sayles, a novelist turned screenwriter turned director, spent the first half of his film making career using the camera as an extension of his typewriter. His work was sharply-written but technically rough and awkward. Somewhere around City of Hope (1991), Sayles became a born-again director; his subsequent efforts, Passion Fish and The Secret of Roan Inish, were near-perfection. Lone Star is the latest chapter in Sayles' ongoing great American novel.

Sheriff Deeds (Chris Cooper, the star of Sayles' ambitious but wearying Matewan) is a second-generation lawman, and the Frontera natives never let him forget it. His father, the legendary Buddy Deeds (Matthew McConaughey), was the town's previous sheriff; Buddy got off to a good start — so goes the story — by expelling his own predecessor, the corrupt, racist, and brutal Charley Wade (Kris Kristofferson). Sheriff Deeds suspects that the sun-bleached bones may be Charley's, and that Buddy was the one who gave the corpse its dry funeral.

That would be enough for one reasonably compelling movie. But Sayles digs deeper. Lone Star, as it turns out, is only marginally "about" Charley and Buddy and the skeleton, in terms of the screen time they get (Sayles' miserly distribution of the Charley/Buddy scenes, masterfully played by Kristofferson and McConaughey, is his only slight misstep). On another level, the movie is very much about those men — what they represent, the impact their lives and actions had on the people of Frontera.

Settling into the dust of the town, Sayles gives us Frontera as a web of emotions and memories. Every character — the cheerful Mayor Hollis (Clifton James), the black bar owner Otis (Ron Canada), Sheriff Deeds' high school love Pilar (Elizabeth Peña) — has roots that point back to Charley or Buddy, like vines seeking blood instead of water. Sayles doesn't pin name-tags on these people, and you don't have to pay attention. But the movie repays your effort with interest.

Having said all that, I don't feel that Lone Star is a masterpiece (though it is one of the year's best) or Sayles' best work; I lean towards his Lianna, Eight Men Out, and Passion Fish. This movie, subtle and enthralling as it is, ultimately saddens me: Hollywood should be releasing a Lone Star (or a Fargo) every month. (And years ago, it did). That's not John Sayles' fault; he's doing his part.

Lone Star shows him at his most reflective. And he has a powerful image in that skeleton: the ugly past grinning up at the present, haunting the future.

Adoptable Animals

Black is beautiful but white is wonderful on these lazy, hazy hot dog days of the summer. Select a white pet to help you think cool. Animal Umbrella has two all white kittens-one male and one female-who are inseparable and must be placed together.

We also have three all white adults-one female spayed and declawed-one persian spayed female and an all white male about 1 year old with one green eye and one blue.

There are about two short hair black kittens (a great pair) and an all black angora male who is 4 months old and an all black bobtail, about 1 year old. We have lots of adult cats including some pure breds and many, many kittens, all colors and all ages.

Thanks to those who responded to our plea for foster homes; many more are needed. We could take in many more if we had places to keep them temporarily. Animal Umbrella provides all necessities while they are with you.

Thinking of a dog companion? Call Kristen at the Fairhaven Animal Shelter at 979-4028. She has a great selection of dogs who need immediate placement.

If interested in any of these animals, please call one of the local Animal Umbrella representatives (unless otherwise noted):
